

جامعة الملك فهد للبترول والمعادن
King Fahd University of Petroleum & Minerals

General Conditions for Participation in the

KFUPM 8th Student Forum

1. All participations must be comply with the principles, values, and provisions of Islam, and the regulations and established traditions of Saudi Arabia.
2. The content of the participation should be compatible with the objectives of the University and its goals.
3. The participation's object should be presented within the Forum themes and topics.
4. Participants should comply with the conditions and regulations for each of the Conference events.
5. The participation should be based on the thought and work of the student or students who applied, and devoid of anything that might infringe upon scientific integrity or detract from the intellectual property rights of others.
6. Student participation should be nominated by the coordinator of the theme.
7. The submitted participation must not have been presented in previous conferences, published or accepted for publication in any scientific journal or conference inside or outside the Kingdom. It must not have received any local, regional or international award.
8. The participants should be students enrolled in the University during the current term (162), or UG graduated by the end of last term (161).
9. One of the standards for judging participations shared by more than one student is the relevance between the amount of work in the participation and the number of participants.